Reading is Everything!

During the half term break pupils and staff at Bryn Celynnog took part in the 'Extreme Reading' competition where they sent in photographs of them reading in the most weird and wonderful of places.

Reading is so often taken for granted, we all rely on reading in so many ways in so many walks of life. Without it we would be at a loss. Its great to see reading for pleasure as well as reading for life.

Well done to everyone who participated .

World Book Day 2022

Return of the Mike

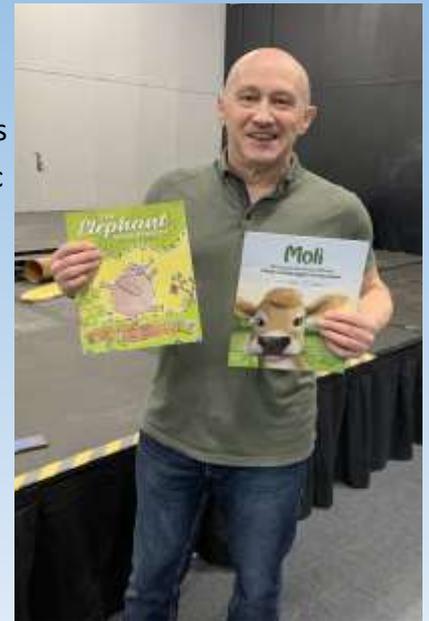

Last Thursday, on World Book Day, year 7 had the pleasure of meeting Mike Church. A regular at Bryn Celynnog before the pandemic, Mike Church was finally able to return to inspire the next generation of readers and writers.

Mike, who started his career as a teacher, is a full-time writer and natural performer. He's written children's books of fiction and a book of poetry. He regaled each year 7 group with stories from his adventures in schools and prisons around the country.

Throughout his talk, students were encouraged to think of themselves as readers, even if they weren't necessarily reading books. He also helped students to see the links between historical fiction and what is going on in the world right now. His question regarding the number of male inmates in prisons compared to females promoted a fantastic discussion on toxic gender roles in society- with a GCSE style response coming from Alfie Richards in 7A. And of course, Mike Church has some serious circus skills under his belt- Mrs

Price was very impressed by the knife juggling.

Most importantly, the students had a fantastic reaction to Mike and said that he was "entertaining" and "funny." Mike Church, please come again next year!

Sevens Season Starts Here

On Wednesday this week the Sevens Rugby season got underway with an excellent opening effort from Year 7.

Under grey skies at Islwyn High School the Year 7 boys got their first taste of sevens rugby. A dry 4G pitch provided good conditions though it is still very cold for the sprint version of our national sport.

The squad of twelve rotated throughout the afternoon and played four matches. The first match was against Islwyn High Reds and the hosts were keen to put up a good show. The Bryn team were very resilient though, despite conceding an early try they bounced back with Tom O'Connor scooping up a loose ball on the half way and scampering in to open the Bryn Celynnog Account. This led to further success and an opening victory for Bryn.

The squad continued to improve through the second fixture as the Islwyn High Blues were the next opposition. This match was tougher but there was a real commitment from the boys in black. Carter Williams came up with the play of the day as he sprinted 50 metres to pull off a fantastic try saving tackle. This was the springboard to another victory as the team produced some good rugby.

Game 3 was against Blackwood School and the boys continued in the same vein. Thomas Parker was destructive in attack and defence and Jack Dando who played every minute of every game was like a dynamo. Again the whole squad rotated and came up with 4 tries.

The final game was against the other unbeaten team of the day, West Monmouth. This proved to be a much tougher proposition for the Bryn Celynnog. West Monmouth kept their shape very well and managed to create overlaps on several occasions to score 4 tries. The Bryn team were still full of fight though and struck back with a try of their own and pressed hard for more.

A fantastic start to the Sevens season. Well done to the whole squad. Ardderchog.

ClassCharts Behaviour Management

We have a very clear behaviour management system in place, which your child should already be aware of. Members of staff follow this system to deal with poor behaviour in lessons to ensure effective learning is able to take place. A range of consequences and sanctions are in place for pupils who do not uphold our simple and achievable expectations:

- D1 - This is issued to a pupil when a member of staff has to speak to them regarding their behaviour in lesson. The pupil is told that they are now on a D1.
- D2 - This is issued when a pupil has been moved to a new seat due to persistent poor behaviour. This is the second time a teacher has had to speak to a pupil during the lesson.
- D3 - This is issued when a pupil has had to be spoken to for the third time about their behaviour. This may be issued if a pupil is consistently disrupting the class/not following instructions or continued poor behaviour. When a D3 is issued the Head of Faculty will remove the pupil from the lesson.
- D4 - Pupils who proceed through sanctions D1 – D3 and fail with the Head of Faculty intervention are sent to the D4L room and issued a D4.

Removal to Discipline for Learning (D4L) room will be immediate for:-

- Serious behaviour out of lessons
- Verbal abuse
- Behaviour towards others which is considered dangerous
- Damage to, or theft of, school property or that of others.
